

Life-long Harlem resident, Geoffrey Eric Eaton serves as Deputy Chief of Staff for Congressman Charles B. Rangel, where he oversees the day-to-day management of the New York Office. He is Congressman Rangel's designee to a number of important Boards, including the New York Empowerment Zone, the Upper Manhattan Empowerment Zone, and the Harlem Community Development Corporation.

Geoffrey has amassed over 20 years of New York City government experience, including serving as Deputy Public Advocate for Community Affairs for the first elected Public Advocate, Mark Green and the New York City Council.

A lifelong community activist, Geoffrey is Chairman of the Board of the Uptown Dance Academy, Inc., President of the Harlem Canaan House Tenant Association, President of the NAACP Mid-Manhattan Branch Chapter and a recipient of two NAACP New York State Conference Awards.

Geoffrey has worked as Project Coordinator, Manager, Logistics, Lead and Press Advance Director for a number of political and non-political campaigns including Earth Day 1990; Comic Relief 1990; UrbanAid4LifeBeat; DNC/Rainbow Push Voter Registration - Early Vote Project; President Mikhail Gorbachev visit to Minnesota; The Children's Health Fund, Inc.; David N. Dinkins for Mayor; Hillary Rodham Clinton's New York State Senate GOTV Campaign; New York City's First Ever Asthma March in East Harlem; The November 4, 2008 Charles B. Rangel/Barack Obama Historic Election Night Victory Party at the Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. Harlem State Office Building Plaza; The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Centennial National Convention in New York City; and a myriad of national, state, citywide and local elections.